A Monthly Communication of Men's Events - March 2010

Wow! Even after over a decade in various aspects of ministry to men, I'm still amazed at how in just one weekend God can adjust your attitude and direction. The Man in the Mirror Summit was incredible, and it's more clear than ever that at every level ministry to men is critical - for our churches, our families, our communities, and the men themselves.

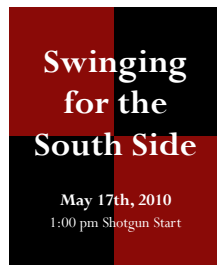

If you've wanted to get involved - or more involved - in men's ministry but weren't sure where to start, come by EQUIP 2010 or give me a call. We will be looking to get a couple training workshops and continued discussions in the spring. Also coming soon is a new website, and other exciting news - your prayers are appreciated now more than ever!

In order to help with these situations, I have started a "Men of AIM" page on Facebook, which can have late breaking news or updates on events, as well as the latest in training opportunities. On occasion, I will also share a resource or other item I've come across that has challenged or encouraged me.

Please forward Taking A.I.M. to other men or churches engaged in the Battle for Men's Souls. Submit your events to Rich@MenofAIM.org. Thank you and God Bless!
